McManus Nominated by Senate Majority Leader to Serve on NCSL Labor Committee

(LANSING) – State Senator Michelle McManus, R-Lake Leelanau, today announced she has been nominated by Senate Majority Leader Ken Sikkema to serve on the National Conference of State Legislatures Labor and Workforce Development Committee.

“I am grateful to Senator Sikkema for nominating me to serve on the NCSL’s Labor and Workforce Development Committee,” McManus said. “I look forward to the many new endeavors this committee will bring, and I am eager to begin working with my new colleagues.”

The National Conference of State Legislatures is focused on improving the quality and effectiveness of state legislatures, promoting policy innovation and communication among state legislatures and ensuring state legislatures a strong, cohesive voice in the federal system.

“Senator McManus is well-qualified to serve on the National Conference of State Legislatures Labor and Workforce Development Committee,” Sikkema said. “Her experience, knowledge of the legislative process and ability to work on a bipartisan level will prove her a valuable asset to the committee.”

The organization was founded in 1975, and is the only organization that provides an open, bipartisan national forum for lawmakers to communicate with one another and share ideas.
